SERMON SUMMARY

God's Unspeakable Gifts For You

The section on giving from 2 Corinthians 9 comes to a close. The apostle wraps up with one amazing summary thought in 2 Corinthians 9:15. The Corinthians, Macedonians, and others were motivated by a gospel heart to glorify God by giving with faith and joy. This section on giving has been on the giving bountifully and cheerfully of all we have because of all we have received.

God is the great giver. Because we have received His unspeakable gift, we can become extravagant givers. The Apostle sums up the chapter with a key thought: "Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift." Let us focus on the indescribable gifts God has given us and allow the heart to flow with thankfulness.

4 Key Words

Pastor Frank unpacks each word from 2 Corinthians 9:15, including the Greek word "anekdiegeto" that Paul invented because no existing language could capture what God has given.

Ridiculous Blessings

There are blessings, great blessings and ridiculous blessings! God's generosity exceeds our imagination — way bigger than you could imagine, overflow you can't contain.

7 Indescribable Gifts

This sermon unpacks seven specific ways God pours out His indescribable gifts: from generous provision to miraculous increase to passionate intercession prayers.
